RAYMOND CLAPPER

The American press and the American people have suffered a real loss in the death of Raymond Clapper, who was killed in a plane crash during the invasion of the Marshall islands.

By the highest standards of his profession, he was a fine newspaperman. He was fair, courageous and responsible.

At the age of 51 he had spent 28 years in newspaper work and had traveled hundreds of thousands of miles in gathering news first hand. He was "on the job" to the very end.

INFLATION, THE BOGEY MAN

"The threat of inflation is being used as a bogey man to induce a nation to accept social reform, regimentation, limitation of opportunity and incentive. Before the war ends, it will be used to hide social economic mistakes and to conceal from the public the sad state of economic affairs into which the nation has been thrown.

"Inflation comes when there is too much money and too few things to buy. High prices result from inflation—they are not the cause. Inflation is avoided, or remedied by increased production—not by regulation. To date, our government has done much to promote inflation, including propagandizing it, and nothing to prevent it."—F. H. Sexauer, president, Dairymen's League Cooperative Association of New York.

EVERYONE'S RIGHT

"Freedom of speech is the precious right of all persons. It is not lost because one becomes an employer of his fellowmen, nor should it be lost by an employe when he associates himself with a union."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

RATION WRINKLE

On February 27 a new wrinkle will be added to the ration program. And for a time a new wrinkle may be added to the forehead of the American housewife. On February 27, ration tokens will make their debut.

They will come in two colors—red and blue—red for meat, butter, etc., and blue for processed foods. Each token will be good for one point. These dime-sized chips are being introduced as a means of saving paper, labor and money, and of providing a better method of making change in ration points.

They may seem a bit cumbersome and annoying at first, but they will help make your present ration book last two years instead of a few months.

This new system will also be somewhat trying to your chain or independent food retailer until he gets accustomed to it. So if things don't go smoothly right off the bat, don't blame him. Just remember, this is war.

Two billion tokens have been manufactured, but the OPA warns that they must be kept circulating if we are to have enough for normal business needs.

These new ration chips may get mixed up with the small change or the street-car tokens in the housewife's purse, but eventually she will develop the technique of picking them out. Their color should help make them distinguishable.

The answer to the whole problem is, let us all work harder for victory and hasten the day when ration tokens will be—just souvenirs.

REGISTER NOW!

There have been weeks of protracted debate in Congress over ways and means of enabling our soldiers, both overseas and in training camps, to vote at this year's elections. And probably no matter how difficult it may be, ballots will be gotten to the servicemen.

Under the circumstances, it is ironic, indeed, to learn from our State election officials that California voters on the home front, in far too many instances, haven't even taken the trouble to register. Our registration totals are at the lowest point in years, despite the fact that California is bulging with new residents.

The deadline for registering for the May primary is April 6. If you aren't registered, get registered—and do your duty on election day. Now, more than ever before, our votes are important. Let's not fail to make them count!

SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

Julia tells- How to prepare variety meats

WE HOUSEWIVES in the United States are learning how truly delicious many of the less familiar "variety meats" can be. And we're keenly interested, because these meats are relatively plentiful in supply and therefore cost us fewer ration points. We're learning, for example, that are especially choice if they're lamb kidneys, but that those of calf, beef, and pork are also good. Simple preparation: wash them well in cold water, and split to make them lie flat; remove white tubes and excess tissue and fat; soak in cold salted water (1 tsp. salt per qt.) about 30 mins.; drain and dry well; cook until just tender, by broiling, sauteing, or stewing.

Kidney Stew: saute onion in drippings, melted butter or margarine; add cut-up kidneys, salt, pepper, nutmeg, Worcestershire sauce, and parsley to taste, and water to cover; cover and simmer for 20 mins. or until tender; thicken with flour mixed to a paste with a little cold water, stirring constantly; serve immediately.

Similarly, with HEARTS

we're learning that both calf and lamb hearts are tender, that beef hearts take a little longer cooking, and that pork hearts are coarser in texture. To prepare: wash well in slightly warmed water, take out arteries and veins that may be cut away; simmer slowly in water until tender, adding 1 tsp. salt to each quart of water when half done; allow about 2 hours for calf, lamb and pork hearts, about 3-3½ hours for beef hearts.

Braised Heart: instead of par-boiling heart, subject it to low, moist heat in closely covered pan; first brown heart on all sides in small amount of fat and add about ½-cup water; season with salt and pepper; cover and cook in moderate oven (350° F.); allow 1½-2 hours for calf, lamb and pork hearts, about 3½ hours for beef.

And when it comes to TONGUE, we're learning that all four kinds are good, with beef the favorite of course. To prepare: wash well, scraping and cutting away any excess tissue; cover with boiling water and bring to a boil; then skim water and simmer tongue gently until tender; add ½ tsp. salt per lb. when half done; allow 2-3 hours for calf tongue, 1-1½ for lamb, 3-4 for beef, 1½-2 for pork.

If tongue is to be served hot, remove it from liquid and plunge into cold water for few seconds, thus making it easier to remove skin or root ends. If to be served cold, let it cool in the water used for cooking.

We all know about LIVER and how appetizing it can be. But not all of us may realize how easy it is to disguise its flavor for those who dislike it. Simply take equal parts of liver and stewing beef or lamb, add 3 tbsps. of flour for each ½-lb. of liver, salt and pepper and grind. Form into patties and fry—or make into meat loaf. If you say nothing about this being liver patties the family will eat and enjoy it!

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

BACK in the 1920's, one of the first men to realize the potentialities of evil in the outcast, spy, and beerhall ranter, Adolf Hitler, was the journalist, Konrad Heiden. To arouse the democratic leaders from their lethargy, he wrote "History of National Socialism," which was suppressed and publicly burned in Germany when Hitler came to power. He followed this with his "One Man Against Europe."

KONRAD HEIDEN

Now he has completed a comprehensive book about the world's Number One Nazi, titled "Der Fuehrer," which the Book-of-the-Month Club has made its selection for February.

Konrad Heiden was born in Munich, in 1902, the son of a labor union official. In 1923, he joined the staff of the Frankfurter Zeitung, with the special assignment of covering the Nazi movement in Munich. Then, as now, Hitler appreciated the power of publicity. Although Heiden always wrote denunciations of him, Hitler paid him homage because he was a reporter. On several occasions, in fact, he refused to start a meeting until the representative of the Frankfurter Zeitung arrived. That is how Konrad Heiden got the reputation of being "the man who kept Hitler waiting."

Heiden is also credited with being the originator of the term "Nazi." At first, Hitler's party called themselves "Nasos"—the normal abbreviation of "National Socialism." As a term of derision, Heiden referred to them as "Nazis." In the Bavarian villages, Nazi (a corruption of Ignatius) is slang for bumpkin or simpleton. Soon "Nazi" was used so widely the party adopted it officially.

Hunted by the Gestapo, Heiden was forced underground, and in 1933, he escaped to the Saar, where he edited a paper campaigning against the return of the Saar to Germany. After the fight was lost, he fled to Paris. When war broke out he was interned in a French concentration camp. As the Germans approached, the prisoners were evacuated, and he made his way south across France on foot. After incredible adventures, he reached Lisbon and eventually America. His three years here have been devoted to the writing of "Der Fuehrer."

When the fabulously successful theatrical producer and actor was a little boy, relates Ward Morehouse in his biography, "George M. Cohan," his dislike for school was only equalled by his aversion for violin lessons. Many years later when George and his father were dining at a fine hotel, they were both impressed by a violin solo rendered during their meal. "Say, dad," spoke up George, "perhaps if I had given more attention to my violin lessons I might be playing here." "Yes, George," California."

Election of officers will be held. Dues for 1944 may be paid at the meeting.

A Man-sized Cup of Coffee

A MAN-SIZED cup of coffee for the head of the house will make Dad's breakfast completely enjoyable. All men love good coffee and plenty of it! This big cup with his name on it and full of his favorite brew is just what father needs to get him off to work in a good frame of mind. These days we all need hearty and satisfying breakfasts so be sure that not only Dad but the entire family gets off to a good start every morning.

A plate of hot griddle cakes certainly hits the spot on a cold winter morning. They are especially appetizing when served in Adirondack style . . . six or eight cakes in a stack and cut in pie-shaped portions. Their natural affinity, of course, is a large cup of steaming, flavorful coffee or, better still, two cups. To be truly appreciated that coffee must be freshly made and full of real coffee flavor. Here is the recipe for Stacked Griddle Cakes. It's tested, of course. It will save you the usual necessary butter because the melted brown sugar takes its place.

Stacked Griddle Cakes

2½ cups sifted flour
5 teaspoons baking powder
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 egg, slightly beaten
2 cups milk
2 tablespoons melted shortening or drippings

Mix and sift dry ingredients. Combine slightly beaten egg and milk and stir into dry ingredients. Stir in shortening or drippings. Bake cakes 6 inches in diameter on both sides on ungreased hot griddle. Add more milk if thinner cakes are desired. Sprinkle each cake with brown sugar and stack. Cut into pie-shaped pieces before serving. Yield: 6 servings.

"Date Conscious"? You'd Better Be--

Here is a list of those ration dates, which make calendar-watchers of all local housewives, motorists, or, in fact, anyone who wishes to eat, drive his car, or buy an occasional pair of shoes.

October 31—shoe stamp 18 (in War Ration Book One) was to have expired but OPA extends expiration date indefinitely.

November 1—Book Three "airplane" series stamp No. 1 became valid; good for one pair of shoes until further notice.

January 1, 1944—green stamps G, H, and J (Book Four) became valid for purchase of processed foods.

January 16—sugar stamp No. 30 in War Ration Book Four became valid and will be good for buying 5 pounds of sugar through the end of March.

January 22—A gasoline coupons became valid, good through March 21.

January 23, 1944 — brown stamps V became valid (Book Three) for meats, etc.

January 30, 1944 — brown stamps W became valid for meats, etc. (Book Three).

February 1—green stamps K, L, M, good for purchase of processed foods became valid, will be good through March 20 (Book Four).

February 6, 1944 — brown stamps X became valid (Book Three).

February 13, 1944—brown stamps Y became valid to use in purchase of meats, etc. (Book Three).

February 20, 1944—brown stamps Z become valid (Book Three).

February 20, 1944—green stamps G, H, and J (Book Four) for buying processed foods expire.

February 26, 1944—brown stamps V, W, and X expire.

February 27—begin use of red and blue rationing tokens for change.

February 27—blue stamps A, B, C, D, E (Book Four) to be used with ration tokens come into use for processed foods.

February 27—red stamps A, B, C, (10 point value each) in Book Four become valid, good through May 20 for meats, fats, cheese, butter.

February 29, 1944—deadline for inspection of tires for B and C gasoline book holders.

March 15—deadline for filing income tax returns; earlier filing is desirable.

March 20, 1944—brown stamps Y and Z (Book Three) expire.

March 20—green stamps K, L, M, Book Four, for processed foods, expire.

March 21—gasoline coupons A No. 10 expire.

March 30, 1944—deadline for inspection of tires for A book holders.

March 31—sugar stamp No. 30 for 5 pounds of sugar expires March 31.

30 DAYS' NOTICE ON STAMP 18

The public will be given 30 days' notice, should it become necessary to terminate Shoe Ration Stamp 18. This announcement was made recently by OPA to "kill" scare-buying rumors that the validity period of Stamp 18 might be cancelled with only 24 hours' notice to consumers.

BROWN POINTS FOR WASTE FATS

For every pound of fat a housewife turns in to her meat dealer or other fat salvager, she receives two meat points, beginning December 13. "But most important," Herbert M. Faust, director of WPB's Salvage division said, "within a month the fat will be transformed into war materials and on the way to the fighting fronts." He reminded housewives to save the grease from turkeys, geese, ducks, and chickens, for the manufacture of war products.

CANNING SUGAR NOW AVAILABLE

Housewives may now get 5 pounds of canning sugar by using Stamp No. 40 in War Ration Book Four, OPA has announced, and additional canning sugar later will be available on application to local boards. Stamp No. 40 will be good 13 months, through February 28, 1945.

University Offers Special War Training

Disabled and discharged service men and women, seeking war work, will be aided in stepping into engineering departments of Bay area war industries in a free six weeks University of California War Training course in engineering drawing starting February 28, at the San Francisco War Training center, 20 Second street.

To those without previous experience in this field, the course will provide a thorough grounding in drafting technique which will equip its members to take advantage of the many opportunities now open in shipyards, engineering plants and other war industries in the area. High school graduation, and the intention to enter war industry, are the only prerequisites for receiving this free instruction. Daily sessions of the class will be held from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Those interested should report at 1 p. m., February 19, at 20 Second street, for a preliminary examination. Full information may be secured by calling the San Francisco War Training center, EXbrook 5377.

County Historical Assn. Will Meet, This Evening

The San Mateo County Historical association will hold its annual meeting, tonight, February 17, 8 o'clock at the junior college on Baldwin avenue, San Mateo.

Speaker will be Neal Van Sooy, manager of the Stanford Alumni association, and former publisher of the Redwood City Tribune. Subject of his address will be "The History of Newspapers in

Gasoline Taxes Are Not Deductible

Gasoline taxes are not deductible items in making out federal income tax returns, the California State Automobile association advised car owners today on receipt of information from federal officials. This reverses a situation of a year ago when for the first time the California state gasoline tax of three cents was ruled as deductible on federal income tax returns.

Technical basis for the most recent ruling from the federal government is that the state gasoline tax is imposed on the distributor or manufacturer, not on the consumer, and therefore is not deductible. The same rule applies to federal gasoline and oil taxes which also are not deductible.

State and federal gasoline taxes, however, are deductible on state income tax returns, according to a recent ruling of the California Tax commissioner.

Deductible items in connection with automobile ownership are registration fees, vehicle license fees, federal use tax, municipal taxes, state retail sales tax on automobile or accessory purchases, financing charges on automobile purchases which cover interest on the loan when specified in the contract, and the usual operating and maintenance costs for motor vehicles used in business.

FULL LINE OF LUNCH MEATS AND FROZEN FOODS

MAKE IT EASY FOR YOURSELF!

Remember the days before rationing? All you needed to know was the price of meat, and whether or not you had enough money to buy what you wanted. Then came the meat shortage, and some days you stood in line for hours, only to find everything sold out when it came your turn.

Next you were given an allotment of ration stamps which had to be turned in on meat purchases. But still the dealers' supplies were short, quality was doubtful, prices went up and up, and you had to take what you could get.

But that's ALL changed now—at least, if you shop at the Farmer's Meat Company store.

For we're on a strictly "quality meat, low price, cheerful service" basis. We again offer you a wide choice in meats of the high quality upon which we built this business, and at prices competitively low. Our friendly, helpful service will do much to take the "sting" out of your food rationing problems.
